

PUBLIC RECORDS REQUESTS

The university has defined procedures for addressing a public records request regarding a search. Departments should consult the General Counsel's office with questions about which documents might be exempt. Generally, most documents are available for review. Certain exceptions apply. The university policy is titled Florida Public Records Act – Scope and Compliance.