The Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2009 (GINA) prohibits employers and other entities covered by GINA Title II from requesting or requiring genetic information of an individual or family member of the individual, except as specifically allowed by this law. To comply with this law, we are asking that you not provide any genetic information when responding to this request for medical information. "Genetic Information," as defined by GINA, includes an individual's family medical history, the results of an individual's or family member's genetic tests, the fact that an individual or individual's family member sought or received genetic services, and genetic information of a fetus carried by an individual or individual's family member or an embryo lawfully held by an individual or family member receiving assistive reproductive services.

Note: If an individual has a disability that is not obvious, or when it is not readily apparent how a requested accommodation relates to an individual's impairment, it may be necessary for the University to require the individual to provide documentation from a qualified health care provider in order for the University to fully and fairly evaluate the accommodation request. These information requests will be limited to documentation that (a) establishes the existence of a disability; (b) identifies the individual's functional limitations; and (c) describes how the requested accommodation addresses those limitations. Any cost to obtain such documentation is the obligation of the person requesting the accommodation.

Certification and Release of Information

I hereby certify that all statements made above are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief. I hereby authorize the release of the above information to the University of Central Florida for the purpose of determining if I am a qualified individual with a disability and the appropriateness of the requested reasonable accommodation (s). I understand that it will be my responsibility to complete a Medical Release Statement and to furnish a Provider Certification of Disability, if required, to the University of Central Florida Office of Institutional Equity for my request to be evaluated. I further authorize the University of Central Florida Office of Institutional Equity to seek clarification of this document and the Provider Certification of Disability, if necessary, by contacting my physician(s) or healthcare provider(s).

How does the individual's limitation(s) interfere with his/her ability to participate fully in the UCF program/activity/service described on the first page of this request form?

Questions to Help Determine Effective Accommodation Options

If an individual needs an accommodation because of a disability, the University must provide a reasonable accommodation, unless the accommodation poses an undue hardship. The following questions may help determine effective accommodations.

Do you have any suggestions regarding possible accommodations to assist with full participation? Yes No

If yes, what are those suggestions?

How would your suggestions improve the individual's ability to participate fully in the program/activity/service described on the first page of this form?
